“Quotable Quotes”

Grief and tragedy and hatred are only for a time. Goodness, remembrance and love have no end.

— US PRESIDENT GEORGE W. BUSH

“The first plane basically landed on my desk.”

— DAN HEYMANN, who worked for an insurance company on the 26th floor of the North tower and missed obliteration by 15 minutes, in Sunday Times (South Africa)

There's not enough dust to cloud our love for freedom.

— FERNANDO ZAMORA and MIGUEL RIVERA, Columbia University students

You can't think. If you think, you fall apart.

— DR. STEVE GARNER, on the rescue efforts, from St. Vincent's Hospital, New York

Some people live their whole lives, long lives, without having left anything behind. My sons will be told their whole lives that their father was a hero.

— LISA BEAMER, wife of man believed to have taken action against hijackers (AP)

Did you want us to respect your cause? You just damned your cause. Did you want to make us fear? You just steeled our resolve. Did you want to tear us apart? You just brought us together.

— LEONARD PITTS, Jr. in Miami Herald

Daddy, I wish this was all just a dream.

— FIVE-YEAR-OLD GIRL, after witnessing the attack, firsthand

We're all Americans now. It doesn't matter where we were born, or what language we speak to say our prayers.

— MARGARET WENTE in The Globe and Mail (Canada)

The most visible symbol in New York is the spirit of a free people.

— NEW YORK MAYOR RUDOLPH GIULIANI

It wouldn't surprise me to see them rebuild the World Trade Centre even higher—to make it clear that they cannot be forced to their knees.

— ALFRED DEFAGO, former Swiss ambassador to the US, quoted in Der Hun

Our brothers, our friends, our relatives are buried here. I'm not going anywhere.

— NEW YORK FIREFIGHTER

Know that I love you and no matter what, I'll see you again.

— BRIAN SWEENEY, passenger on hijacked plane, in message left for his wife, Jud
