"I STARTED OUT
SEARCHING FOR MYSELF
AND MY COUNTRY
AND FOUND BOTH."
—Peter Jenkins

With his own feelings echoing the disillusionment of his whole generation, Peter Jenkins set out with his dog Cooper to walk across America and find out what his country was really about.

Along the way Jenkins learned timeless secrets of life from a hermit mountain man, caused a happy local stir by living with a black family in North Carolina, worked to his limits in Southern mills, almost died on a mountaintop, and had more than a lifetime of experiences.

Now, alive as never before, five thousand miles and thirty-five pairs of shoes later, his faith and pride in his country have been restored. Yours will be too as you read his story.

"WONDERFUL...READING JENKINS' BOOK IS THE
NEXT BEST THING TO HAVING ACTUALLY WALKED
ALONG BESIDE HIM."—Associated Press
