A Treasury of Tales is a collection of thirteen stories retold from ancient Indian books: the Panchatantra, the Jatakas and the Hitopadesha. These stories have been a source of inspiration for centuries. Their aim is not to sermonise, but to create interest and curiosity in young minds, in such a manner, that children can draw a lesson in practical wisdom. They are simple, well-written stories, and the young reader will enjoy them greatly.

Dr. J. C. Jain is an eminent Hindi scholar, educationalist and the author of several books. His Hindi readers have been used as text-books for the past thirty years in the schools of Maharashtra. He is the Head of the Hindi Department of Ramnarain Ruia College, Bombay, and has held this post for over three decades. Dr. Jain is widely travelled and was Professor of Hindi at Peking University. He has also visited East Germany, Czechoslovakia and the U. S. S. R. to study their educational systems. He is a regular contributor to Hindi and English journals.
