A NOVEL BY
ALDOUS HUXLEY

Bantam Books

New York

“An opportunity for Aldous Huxley to examine fidelity, adultery, hypocrisy and passion... provokes and stimulates... brilliant and exciting.”

BOSTON HERALD

“Huxley's best novel since Point Counter Point—perhaps this wiser, warmer book should be termed his best.”

STERLING NORTH

In The Genius and The Goddess, Huxley gives us a matchless woman, the glorious Katy Maartens—wife, mistress, mother. Untrammelled by ordinary rules of conduct, Katy was a wellspring of life to her world-famous husband; while to her young lover she gave a wealth of tenderness.

“Huxley—one of the rare literary geniuses of our time!”
