

RICHARD BACH

Author of
JONATHAN LIVINGSTON SEAGULL

A CLASSIC OF THE MEN WHO SAIL THE
UPPER REGIONS
OF THE EARTH'
New York Times

STRANGER TO THE GROUND

Richard Bach

Stranger to the Ground

A PANTHER BOOK

GRANADA

London Toronto Sydney New York

SET FREE BY FLIGHT

Soaring miles above earth, a man is set free. He etches high, wide arcs in limitless space, confirming his sovereignty of the sky. He is a being filled with power and rapture . . .

But on a night-flying mission over gale-torn Europe, pitted against eternal enemies of man—fear, darkness and storm—he must summon untapped resources in his battle to survive . . .

Published for the first time in a British paperback edition Stranger to the Ground is a truly classic evocation of the excitement, danger and mystery of flight.

'Stands with the works of Antoine de Saint-Exupéry compellingly beautiful and masterfully told'

MARTIN CAJDIK

ALSO BY RICHARD MAGEE IN GRANADA PAPERBACKS

THERE'S NO SUCH PLACE AS FAR AWAY

BIPLANE

NOTHING BY CHANCE

Over 200,000 copies sold

TRUE ADVENTURE
0 385 05312 3

UK £1.25 NEW ZEALAND $4.95
AUSTRALIA $4.95 (recommended)