FIGURING IT OUT

Man, I've practically made a career out of babes, but this one really hit me. She had a shape like a three-dimensional dream and I hugged her with my eyes. Right with that first glance, I started trying to memorize her.

She was the key—er—figure in a senatorial investigation.

Me? I'm Shell Scott, the cad of a shamus prepared to pursue her to the ends of the earth—if only for the rear view.

She was a living doll, and I meant to keep her that way—even if it killed me!
