

BHAVAN'S BOOK UNIVERSITY

PATHWAY TO GOD
IN KANNADA LITERATURE

BY
R. D. RANADE

1960

Published in collaboration with
THE KARNATAK UNIVERSITY, DHARWAR

by
BHARATIYA VIDYA BHAVAN
CHAUPATTY, BOMBAY 7

CHAPTER V

Pp. 60-74

THE NATURE OF A SPIRITUAL TEACHER

Identity of God and Guru. The process of initiation by the teacher. The spiritual teacher as de-poisoning the serpent of sense. The grace of the spiritual teacher as having no parallel (the effects of the grace of the teacher).

CHAPTER VI

Pp. 75-91

THE FUNCTIONS OF THE SPIRITUAL TEACHER

The metaphysical functions. The moral functions. The mystical functions.

CHAPTER VII

Pp. 92-103

RELATION OF THE SPIRITUAL TEACHER TO THE DISCIPLE. PART-I

Limitless obligations of the spiritual teacher. The type of a spiritual teacher. A pathetic invocation to the teacher. Attitude of elation. The ideal disciple. Moral, yogic and mystical effects of the instructions of the spiritual teacher. The spiritual teacher as being higher than the highest reality.

CHAPTER VIII

Pp. 104-120

RELATION OF THE SPIRITUAL TEACHER TO THE
DISCIPLE. PART-II

The disciple humming like a bee on the lotus feet of the Master. Manifold analogies for the vocation of a spiritual teacher. Impossibility of forgetting the spiritual teacher. The grace of the teacher as leading to unison with Reality.

CHAPTER IX

Pp. 121-136

CHARACTERISTICS OF SAINTS

The Highest devotee. The saint beyond fear, sorrow and torment. Physiological and psychological characteristics of the God-realiser. The saint beyond duality. Man's freedom and God's omnipotence.

CHAPTER X	Pp. 137-150
-----------	-------------

RELATION OF SAINTS TO GOD

The philosophical attitude. The attitude of prayer. The attitude of accusation. The mystical attitude.

CHAPTER XI	Pp. 151-167
------------	-------------

THE NATURE OF GOD

A personalistic description of God. Personal-impersonal description. An impersonal description of God. God as both macrocosm and microcosm. Supersensuousness and transcendence.

CHAPTER XII	Pp. 168-180
-------------	-------------

THE NAME OF GOD—I

The name as reality. The meanings of the syllables of the names of God. Mystical requisites for the utterance of God's name.

CHAPTER XIII	Pp. 181-192
--------------	-------------

THE NAME OF GOD—II

The power of the celestial name. Functions of the name of God. The sweet name of God as the wish-fulfilling tree. Value of smārāpa, kīrtana and gāna in the attainment of God.

CHAPTER XIV	Pp. 193-212
-------------	-------------

THE METHODOLOGY OF MEDITATION

Necessity and significance of vision. Efficacy of concentration. Value of spiritual energy. The mystical method in Purandarādāsa, Gurusiddha and Nijagūṇāśivayogi.

CHAPTER XV	Pp. 213-230
------------	-------------

THE CRITERIA AND THE GENESIS OF SPIRITUAL REALISATION

The philosophic criterion. The moral criterion. The mystical criterion: (a) Supersensuousness (b) Synchronousness (c) Interchange and apperception. Pearl experience in Purandarādāsa, Revaṇāsiddha and Cidānanda. Experience of a jewel.

