

TECHNICAL FUNDAMENTALS

Metal Working

TECHNICAL FUNDAMENTALS

Metal Working

BY HEINZ GRAFF

VKB EDITION LEIPZIG

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHECKING AND MARKING

A. Checking	9
I. Comparing with a measure	9
II. Comparing with a standard	10
B. Marking	19
I. Marking methods	19
II. Marking tools and auxiliaries	22

CUTTING

C. Cutting by means of a chisel	29
I. The wedge—the basis of all cutting edges	29
II. The chisel	31
III. Working with the chisel	32
IV. Survey of chisel types and their application	34
D. Cutting-off by means of the hand plate shears	36
I. The hand plate shears	36
II. Working with the hand plate shears	37
III. Survey of the various types of shears and their use	39
E. Cutting by means of the hand back saw	40
I. The hand back saw	40
II. Working with the hand back saw	42
III. Survey of types of saws and their use	47
F. Cutting by means of the file	48
I. The file	48
II. Working with the file	51
III. Survey of file types and their cut widths	57
G. Cutting by means of the drill	58
I. The spiral drill	58
II. Working with the pillar drilling machine	60
III. Survey of the various types of dulling tools and drilling machines	68

