MATA AMRITANANDAMAYI is an enlightened soul, endowed with a magnetic personality and unique charm. She is the embodiment of universal love and service, and her whole being is ever engaged in the amelioration of suffering people thronging her for solace and succour. The Holy Mother is also silently and unostentatiously engaged in imparting character-building and man-making training to a band of Brahmacharrians, who, fired with the zeal of holiness and fortified with eternal faith in the Lord, relinquished all mundane interests.

Meeting this saint, one can understand the meaning of unconditional divine love, and that God in the form of a saint on earth is pouring that love to the devotees. All are equal in her eyes; all are her children. She manifests the purest motherly qualities on a universal scale. She gains nothing for herself for all the trouble and self-sacrifice that she undergoes day after day. She takes nothing but gives everything. She shows no divine powers apart from her stupendous patience, perseverance and selflessness in the midst of an impatient, selfish and cruel world. In short, it is her universal Divine Motherhood that attracts and binds the people who come into contact with her, and ultimately elevates them spiritually.
