COLLEGE OUTLINE SERIES

College Outlines are up-to-date digests of important subjects. They are widely used in colleges, in adult classes, and by individual adults who wish to study the essentials of any field of knowledge. The authors of the Series are well-known scholars who have devoted many years of study and teaching to their subjects. Most of them are full professors, associate professors, or assistant professors, and four out of every five have received their doctorate degrees or the equivalent.

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THIS BOOK

It tells the complete story of more than eighty plays.

It describes each major figure in the dramatis personae by quoting from the play itself, thus providing an accurate and convenient way of keeping the many characters clearly in mind.

It includes biographical information about thirty-four playwrights and critical comments about their works. In addition, it includes bibliographical information, sources, and indexes to authors, plays, and characters.
