

SPANISH FRESCOES

OF THE ROMANESQUE PERIOD

FONTANA UNESCO ART BOOKS

Spanish Frescoes

OF THE ROMANESQUE PERIOD

Juan Ainaud

MINA BOOK CENTRE,
EDWARD HALL BUILDINGS,
WEST VELI STREET,
MADURAI-1.

COLLINS · UNESCO

The Romanesque frescoes of Spain are particularly precious because few works of the great artists of this period have survived to our time in other European countries. These remain — most of them now in the famous Art Museum of Catalonia in Barcelona — to remind us of the exotic brilliance of the Spanish Romanesque artists who created these vivid masterpieces.