There IS an easy way to—

- Remove spots and stains
- Fix dinner in a hurry
- Clean Venetian blinds
- Keep indoor plants
- Give better parties
- Dust and polish furniture
- Iron clothes and do hundreds of other household tasks—in far less time than it takes you now.

This book contains over 1,500 hints to help you with the job of homemaking. They were chosen from millions of ideas sent by women all over the country to Mrs. Homemaker's Forum, a nonprofit organization which serves as an exchange for the latest and best methods of housekeeping. Each hint was rigidly tested by the Home Service laboratories of the Dumas Milner Corporation.

And here they are—the brightest, newest, most useful hints of them all. They cover the basic household tasks as well as time- and money-saving suggestions on gardening, parties, sickroom care, grooming, trips with the family, etc.

So, whether you are a recent bride or a veteran, here is your key to easier and happier homemaking.
