

THE SPIRITUAL
CRISIS OF MAN

Paul Brunton

THE SPIRITUAL CRISIS OF MAN

by
PAUL BRUNTON

RIDER & COMPANY

CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
I. THE CRISIS IN SOCIETY	7
II. NO BETTER WORLD WITHOUT BETTER MEN!	15
III. THE MACHINE AGE	21
IV. THE CRISIS OF SCIENCE AND INTELLECT	30
Scientific Advance Leading to Self-Destruction— Man: Animal, Intellectual, and Spiritual—The In- tuition Beyond Thinking
V. THE EGO IN EVOLUTION	43
The Ego Crisis—The Inner Challenge of the Crisis —Man's Need of a Higher Power
VI. MAN IN SORROW AND HAPPINESS	69
The School of Sorrowful Experience
VII. MAN'S WILL AND GOD'S WILL	87
Common Errors Concerning Them
VIII. THE EVIL IN OUR TIME	100
Have We Made Progress?—Our Practical Duty
IX. GOD IS!	126
Time and Salvation—God and Man
X. THE PROPHET'S VOICE	146
Religion Should Broaden Out—The Mystic's Light
XI. OUR INNER RESOURCES	168
Where is Man's Fortune?
XII. THE QUEST	183
Wholeness and Balance—Regenerating the Body— Re-educating the Emotions
XIII. THE SILENT CALL OF THE OVERSELF	203
The Adventure of Meditation—A Practical Relaxation Exercise—Moments of Illumination

The Cloud of Unknowing

Translated from the archaic English with introduction by Dr. Iva Proseff

A classic work by an anonymous fourteenth-century English monk, on the achievement of a direct knowledge of God by personal experience.

The Collected Works of Ramana Maharshi

EDITED BY ARTHUR OSBORNE

'The whole book is a distillation of the doctrine and practice of Advaita or non-duality by one who had realised and renewed it in his person.'

The Times Literary Supplement

Foundations of Tibetan Mysticism

LAMA ANAGARIKA GOVINDA

Translated from the German by the author

'Lama Govinda's informed and masterly book.'

The Times Literary Supplement

The Key of The Mysteries

ELIPHAS LEVI

Translated from the French with introduction and notes by Aleister Crowley

This nineteenth-century occult masterpiece is concerned with the mysteries of religion, modernism, the evocation of spirits and practical magic.