Sai Baba Avatar

A New Journey into Power and Glory

Howard Murphet

M

This is Mr Murphet's second book on Sai Baba, the well-known God-man who has raised a great deal of interest the world over. The author's earlier book, Sai Baba, Man of Miracles, dealt mainly with Sai Baba's background—his birth, childhood, and early life—and the response to it was staggering.

Sai Baba Avatar carries on from where Sai Baba, Man of Miracles left off. This book concerns itself with the personal experiences of many who have benefited from the spiritual strength of Sai Baba. Mr Murphet has also provided his own comments on various aspects of Sai Baba's life and work. Mr Murphet seeks to explain the profound subject of Sai Baba, his Path and the spiritual truths that He manifests.

Howard Murphet was born in 1906 in Tasmania and educated at the University of Hobart. During the Second World War he served with the Eighth Army at El Alamein and Tunis, took part in the invasion of Sicily and Italy and, later, with the British Second Army, in the invasion of Normandy. He was also in charge of the British Press Section at the Nuremburg Trials. After a period as a Public Relations Officer in the chemical industry he visited India in 1964 to study Yoga and Eastern Philosophy. His first stay in India (1964-70) deepened his consciousness of the Avatar-like qualities of Sai Baba and led to his return to India in 1974.
