

Muriel
James Dorothy Jongeward

the people
book

transactional analysis
for students

the people
book

contents

introduction 1

part 1 winning with transactional analysis

- 1 winners and losers 4
 - winning and losing 6
 - winner and loser names 8
 - grandfather Cesar, grandson Cesar 9
- 2 introduction to ta 12
 - structural analysis 13
 - transactional analysis 13
 - games analysis 13
 - script analysis 14
 - origin of transactional analysis 14

part 2 understanding personality

- 3 overview of personality structure 20
 - introduction to structural analysis 21
 - Parent ego state 21
 - Adult ego state 22
 - Child ego state 22
- 4 the Parent ego state 26
 - development of the Parent ego state 26
 - parents and their ego states 27
 - the outer and inner use of the Parent ego state 28
- 5 the Adult ego state 32
 - introduction to the Adult ego state 33
 - the Adult ego state and education 33
 - the outer and inner use of the Adult ego state 34

- 6 the Child ego state 37
 - introduction to the Child ego state 38
 - the Natural Child 38
 - the Little Professor 38
 - the Adapted Child 38
- 7 switching ego states 42
 - introduction to switching ego states 42
 - importance of each ego state 43
 - value clarification 43
 - problems of switching ego states 44
- 8 putting the Adult in charge 47
 - Adult functioning 48
 - foggy thinking 49
 - decontaminating the Adult 49
- 9 taking care of the Child 52
 - caring for the Child 52
 - caring with the Parent 53
 - caring with the Adult 53
 - childlike fun and fantasy 54
- 10 monitoring the Parent 56
 - the need for monitoring 57
 - monitoring the negative Parent 57
 - inconsistent parents 58
 - conflicting parents 58
 - uninvolved parents 59
 - superorganized parents 59
 - overneedy parents 59

part 3 transactions between people

- 11 transactional theory 64
 - introduction to transactions 64

